

Home » Leisure

Monsoon Special: 5 great glasshouse getaways

Make the most of the season with these rooms with a view

Last Published: Fri, Jul 20 2018. 06 39 PM IST

✉ Prachi Joshi

Sign Up

Primrose Villas

Tucked away in a sprawling coffee estate near Chikmagalur (4 hours from Bengaluru), Primrose Villas takes “room with a view” to another level. With three sides of floor-to-ceiling glass, these 1,000 sq. ft villas exude a feeling of space. The rooms, done up with Victorian furniture, have a cosy ambience; there’s even a working fireplace. Outside, it’s green as far as the eye can see. There are the lush valleys and mountains of the Western Ghats with the Mullayanagiri peak rising on the horizon. Enjoy the views from your private patio or soak in the elegant bathtub as the rain drenches the hillside (the villas are spread about the hillside so you have complete privacy). From ₹23,000, inclusive of meals. www.primrosevillas.com

MORE FROM LEISURE »

▶ A home for Sir Vidia

▶ Kamal Haasan makes his move

▶ ‘Jugaad’, India’s most overrated idea

▶ The caste aways

▶ English, August at 30: Revisiting Agastya Sen and his kind

LATEST NEWS »

Insolvency: Govt may come up with new law for registered valuers

Rupee likely to stabilise at 68-69 a dollar, says government

Turkey will defy economic threats, says President Erdogan

L&T to consider share buyback on August 23

Amazon, Facebook, Microsoft, Amex, others plan to fight data localisation plans

MARK TO MARKET »

The curious case of Indian cement stocks: Rich valuations, poor earnings