

THIS YEAR'S TOP 50 HOTELS

A wild horse sanctuary and eco-resort (USA), a converted hydro-electric pump house (Australia) and a royal residence (India) are just three of 50 plush new cribs we've found for you around the world. Pack your bags!

Where to stay

INDIA

ITC GRAND MAHARAJA

Located in the heart of the city, the ITC Grand Maharaja is a grand hotel with a rich history. It is a landmark building with a large courtyard and a beautiful garden. The hotel has a long history and is a popular destination for tourists. It is a grand hotel with a rich history and a beautiful garden. The hotel has a long history and is a popular destination for tourists. It is a grand hotel with a rich history and a beautiful garden. The hotel has a long history and is a popular destination for tourists.

PRIMROSE VILLAS,

Chikmagalur

The rolling Baba Budan Hills, part of the verdant Western Ghats, are home to vast coffee estates. One of these, a 122-year-old, 700-acre property, houses Primrose Villas. Each of the five stand-alone villas, enclosed in walls of glass and furnished with Victorian and Jacobean antiques, offers killer views. Since the whole idea of coming here is to get away, make your own rules. Breakfast in bed at 2pm or a five-course Mexican meal at 2am—take your pick. CNT TIP: Saddle up and go horseback riding through the estate. (www.primrosevillas.com; doubles from ₹15,000)

LA VILLA, Pudukkottai

A 10th-century colonial manor has been turned into the most luxurious using local materials and traditional handicrafts. The lobby is calm and cool, and the rooms are elegant. The hotel is a landmark building with a rich history and a beautiful garden. The hotel has a long history and is a popular destination for tourists.

to vast coffee estates. One of these, a 122-year-old, 700-acre property, houses Primrose Villas. Each of the five stand-alone villas, enclosed in walls of glass and furnished with Victorian and Jacobean antiques, offers killer views. Since the whole idea of coming here is to get away, make your own rules. Breakfast in bed at 2pm or a five-course Mexican meal at 2am—take your pick. CNT TIP: Saddle up and go horseback riding through the estate. (www.primrosevillas.com; doubles from ₹15,000)

THE CORNER COURTYARD, Kullu

Located in the heart of the city, the Corner Courtyard is a grand hotel with a rich history. It is a landmark building with a large courtyard and a beautiful garden. The hotel has a long history and is a popular destination for tourists. It is a grand hotel with a rich history and a beautiful garden. The hotel has a long history and is a popular destination for tourists.

INDIA

The rolling Baba Budan Hills, part of the verdant Western Ghats, are home

